

justice for all

2015 pro bono practices of non-exempt Indiana attorneys

15,307 ATTORNEYS*

BY THE NUMBERS

CONTRIBUTED TIME

220,192
hours contributed at no charge

143,517
hours contributed at reduced charge

TOTAL HOURS CONTRIBUTED 363,709

FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTIONS

$729,999
in monetary contributions

$257,076
in-kind contribution of tangible property

TOTAL FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTIONS
$987,075

DATA: Self reported through the Indiana Courts portal during annual attorney registration
As of 04/27/17

7,672
ATTORNEYS contributed time and/or money in 2015

50%
of attorneys contributed time
and/or money

“The Court is encouraged to see that our profession is so willing to help those in need of legal services.

Capturing this baseline information will allow us to put together a roadmap for areas of service that need improvement.”

Hon. Loretta H. Rush
Chief Justice of Indiana

Indiana attorneys are encouraged to provide pro bono legal services

* Nearly 6,000 of the 21,000+ attorneys in Indiana are exempt because they are retired/inactive, employed by the government, or are members of the judiciary.