Essay prompt: In President John F. Kennedy's inaugural address, he challenged Americans with this now-famous quote: "And so, my fellow Americans: ask not what your country can do for you—ask what you can do for your country."

- How would you answer his question? What can and should an American do for his or her country? Why?
- What knowledge, skills, and attitudes enable individuals to "do something" or make a positive contribution to their country?
