Indiana Legislative Youth Advisory Council

Bylaws

Adopted
As the Indiana Legislative Youth Advisory Council, we strive to voice youth opinions, examine issues of importance to Indiana youth and vocalize concerns to legislators. We promote youth participation in State and municipal governments and foster long-lasting relationships between state legislators, state legislative leadership, adults, and young people.

Article I: Name
Section 1: This organization shall be known formally as the Indiana Legislative Youth Advisory Council. This informal name of this membership shall be ILYAC. For the purposes of council documentation, the Indiana Legislative Youth Advisory Council shall be referred to as the Council.

Article II: Membership
Section 1: The Council may consist of up to twenty-two (22) members who, at the time of appointment, are between the ages of sixteen (16) and twenty (20). Members shall serve two-year terms and, if eligible, may be reappointed for subsequent two-year terms. The council members are appointed by:

- The Governor (2)
- The President Pro Tempore for the Senate (5)
- The Minority Leader of the Senate (5)
- The Speaker of the House (5)
- The Minority Leader of the House (5)

Section 2: Special Elections and Appointments – If an Officer position is vacated for any reason before their term is finished, one of two will happen. If the vacant position is that of Chair, a special election amongst all Council members shall occur as soon as possible during a meeting. If the vacant position is that of any other Officer, the remaining Officers shall require a majority vote to appoint a Council member to the position. These appointments may occur outside of meetings and require Officers to inform Council members of the situation and accept nominations.

Section 3: Deputies – Officers may, with consent of the Chair, appoint between one (1) and three (3) Deputies to assist them in their roles. These Deputies will serve on Officers committee, if applicable, shall be given specific responsibilities by their Officer, and, although not Officers themselves, will be invited to join all Officer meetings. Such deputies may include but are not limited to: Deputy Chair (Chair), Deputy of Media (Communications), Deputy of the House/Senate (Political Affairs), Deputy of Graphics (Outreach).
Article IV: Meetings
Section 1: Regular Meetings - The Indiana Legislative Youth Advisory Council shall meet three (3) to six (6) times annually.
   1. At least thirty (30) days' notice must be issued to all Council members and staff.

Section 2: Special Meetings - Special meetings shall be held at the call of the Chair or fifty percent (50%) of the membership.
   1. At least ten (10) days' notice must be issued to all Council members and staff.

Article V: Quorum
Section 1: Setting Quorum – Attendance shall be taken at the beginning of every meeting. Quorum is met when a majority of all Council members are present.

Section 2: Quorum Rules – Major decisions (i.e. elections, endorsements, annual reports, policy stances, amendments) require quorum and a majority of all Council members to vote in favor. All minor Council decisions (i.e. Committee, discussion, planning, tasking) do not require quorum.

Article VI: Committees
Section 1: Committee Formation – Committees may be formed by any officer to serve any organizational purpose, with consent of the Chair. The purview of the committee must be outlined at its formation.

Section 2: Committee Makeup – Committees shall be made up of one Committee Chair, either the forming officer or appointed member, and Committee Members. Committee Chairs, or the Chair, shall appoint Committee Membership. Committees have no restriction on max membership and Council Members are not restricted in the maximum number of Committees they may join. Committee Chairs may remove Committee Members at any time with consent of the Chair.

Section 3: Committee – Committee sessions may occur during any Council meetings at the Chair's pleasure. Committees shall conduct business at meetings and, at the discretion of the Committee Chair or Chair, outside of the meeting.

Article VII: Endorsements
Section 1: Endorsement meetings – All regular scheduled meetings shall be open to agenda items relating to the endorsement of pending legislation or new bills created by the Indiana Legislative Youth Advisory Council.

Section 2: Issues of public interest – Resolutions on issues of specific public interest may be debated and voted upon without prior notice. Such resolutions must be passed by simple majority.

Section 3: Public Statement – No public statement of endorsement may be made without the Council's specific endorsement as defined in this article.
