Law-Related Education Award Guidelines

The Indiana Bar Foundation (Foundation) sponsors the Law-Related Education Award to recognize lawyers, law firms or bar organizations for excellence in providing information that enhances the public's understanding of the law and the legal system.

The recipient shall be actively involved in providing or promoting law-related education activities to the residents of Indiana, be they K-12 students, collegians or individuals not enrolled in traditional education programs (such as prisoners, senior citizens or displaced homemakers, for example).

The methods of disseminating law-related information may include, but are not limited to:

- books, brochures and other printed materials;
- video tape presentations;
- mock trials or other participatory activities;
- speech, essay or art contests.

Nominations must be submitted here by July 1 annually.

Any questions about this award should be directed to the Director of Development & Communications of the Indiana Bar Foundation at (317) 269-7864 or tbrowning@inbf.org.
