National Civics Competition Results

Team Indiana testifying on Capitol Hill at the We the People National Finals

Hoosier students represented Indiana well over the past month at various national civic education competitions. First, Team Indiana from Hamilton Southeastern High School placed seventh out of 56 teams at the We the People National Finals, and Indiana's wildcard team from Fishers High School took eighth place.

The next weekend, Fishers Junior High School finished second place at the We the People National Invitational.

At the National High School Mock Trial Championship,

Team Indiana from Trinity School at Greenlawn placed eleventh out of 46 teams. Congratulations to all!

Help Students Succeed!

What do students learn in High School Mock Trial? Natalie Teyema learned she "has a voice" and "can fight for herself and for others."
