

A Seminar on the Civil Rights Movement

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA
OCTOBER 6-9, 2017

Registration

Fee: $1,000

Deadline: September 8, 2017

Register Online

Contact

Lily Lawson

(317) 269-2415

llawson@inbf.org

Hotel Accommodations

Tutwiler Hotel

(877) 620-8002

Discount code: WEE

Book Online by September 15

CLE Credit Information

General—4.5

NLS—5.5

SPEAKERS

William Baxley

Former Alabama Attorney General

Lecia Brooks

Board of Directors,
Southern Poverty Law Center

William Collins

Professor of History and Political Science,
Samford University

Rev. Wilson Fallin, Jr.

Retired Professor of History,
University of Montevallo

G. Douglas Jones

Former U.S. Attorney,
Northern District of Alabama

Janice Kelsey

Retired Educator and Participant in the Children's March

Robert Leming

National Director, We the People

Carolyn McKinstry

16th Street Baptist Church Bombing Survivor
Author of While the World Watched

Ahmad Ward

Head of Education,
Birmingham Civil Rights Institute

Rev. Thomas Wilder

Pastor, Bethel Baptist Church

SEMINAR OUTLINE

Friday, October 6

Welcome Reception and Dinner

- I. What the World Needs Now
- II. Teaching Tolerance and Accepting Diversity

Saturday, October 7

Breakfast

- III. Did the Founding Fathers Create Such a Flawed Document that the Civil War was Inevitable?
- IV. How Did the Foot Soldiers Impact the Civil Rights Movement?

Lunch

- V. Visit to 16th Street Baptist Church
- VI. Tour of Birmingham Civil Rights Institute

Sunday, October 8

Breakfast

- VII. How Did Religion Shape the Civil Rights Movement?

Lunch

- VIII. Living History: The African-American Church Service in the South

Dinner

Monday, October 9

Breakfast

- IX. Is Justice Delayed Justice Denied?
- X. Title TBA

